

EDUCATIONAL SUMMIT FOR EQUITY

"Yes, We Can!" Partners for Student Success

Sponsored by the San Leandro High School Parents Equity Committee

Saturday, January 24, 2009

San Leandro High School
2200 Bancroft Avenue 8 a.m. - 1 p.m.

Parents and Students -

This exciting Educational Summit offers Parent Workshops AND Student Workshops designed to answer everything you always wanted to know about going to college but didn't know what questions - or who - to ask!

- 8 a.m. Registration & Continental Breakfast
- 9 a.m. Highlights from "Moving from Random Acts..." the SLUSD Equity Presentation made at the National Summit, with Superintendent Christine Lim, Principals Amy Furtado and Mary Ann Valles and Vice Principal Lori Watson & Keynote Speaker Dr. Ammar Saheli
- 10 a.m. Morning Workshops
- 11 a.m. Mid-Morning Workshops
- 12 p.m. Closing Plenary Session

Groups presenting workshops include:

- * Chabot College
- * The Latino Business Professionals of San Francisco
- * Reality Mentor, a community based program committed to the social and academic development of African American youth
- * The Quad, Study Skills for Students
- * GEAR UP/Jaliza Eagles, Study Skills for Students

Workshop topics include:

- * How Affordable is College?
- * Financial Resources Available
- * Critical Consciousness, a workshop for students
- * First in Your Family To Go To College: What to Expect
- * Mentoring Opportunities for Youth

Space is Limited! To register, or for more information, please call SLHS Principal Amy Furtado at 510.618.4603, or email her at afurtado@sanleandro.k12.ca.us

Continental breakfast provided. In the afternoon, SLHS student groups will be hosting an International Student Food Court to support their student clubs.

